

Hi and welcome ...

to the web pages for my upcoming book Politics without Borders: An Anarchist History of the State. For now I'm mainly using this as a way to organize primary sources, but eventually first drafts of book chapters will appear here too.

The book will be published by Cambridge University Press, hopefully in 2018. I've written about half of it so far and made a pretty good outline of the other half.

yours,

Erik
